- > Mr Julian Burnside AO QC, delivers his lecture
- > Professor Rosemary Owens AO, delivers the vote of thanks

Mr Julian Burnside AO QC was admitted to the bar in 1976, and took silk in 1989. His practice has been predominantly in commercial law. However, he has also appeared in a number of other very significant cases, including the Waterfront Case (Patrick Stevedores Operations No 2 Pty Ltd v Maritime Union of Australia (1998) 195 CLR 1) and the litigation awarding damages for the unlawful removal of a member of the 'stolen generations' (Trevorrow v State of South Australia (2007) 98 SASR 136). Mr Burnside was appointed as an Officer in the Order of Australia in 2009 "for service as a human rights advocate particularly for refugees and asylum seekers, to the arts as a patron and fundraiser, and to the law".

The lecture will be followed by refreshments in the Moot Court Room, Adelaide Law School.

Registration is essential for catering purposes.

Launched on 17 July 2007 by Her Excellency, Ms Quentin Bryce AC CVO, in her then capacity as Governor of Queensland and a Foundation Fellow of the Australian Academy of Law (AAL), the AAL is the fifth learned Academy in Australia and is the culmination of a process begun with the Australian Law Reform Commission's landmark report, Managing Justice: a review of the federal civil justice system (ALRC 89, 2000). The Foundation Patron of the AAL was The Hon Murray Gleeson AC (former Chief Justice of Australia).

The AAL is a broadly-based and permanent body, comprising individuals of exceptional distinction from all parts of the legal community—elected from the judiciary, legal practitioners and legal academics—united in a common goal of advancement of the discipline of law and the justice system. A distinctive feature of the AAL is that its Fellows and therefore the AAL itself, provide a 'bridge' linking, indeed uniting, the judiciary, academia and the legal profession in Australia. Information about the AAL may be found on its website: www.academyoflaw.org.au.

Managing Justice traced the rapid growth, diversification and fragmentation of the Australian legal profession, and the serious challenges these present to the maintenance of a coherent professional identity and traditional collegiate approaches. Without positive action the single 'legal profession' could become a multiplicity of 'legal occupations', none of which sees itself as part of a larger whole.

The objects of the Academy, set out in the AAL Constitution, include:

- > To establish and advance funds to provide scholarships and research grants which advance legal education and the discipline of law and promote ethical conduct and professional responsibility.
- > To promote the highest standards of legal scholarship, legal research, legal education, legal practice, and the administration of justice.
- > To promote the continuous improvement of the law and of the operation of the legal system.
- > To promote the highest standards of ethical conduct and professional responsibility amongst all members of the legal community, including the use of legal skills not merely for material personal reward but also in the service of society.
- > To enhance understanding and observance of the rule of law, and community understanding of the role and function of law, lawyers, the legal profession, and the judiciary.
- > To provide a forum for cooperation, collaboration, constructive debate and the effective interchange of views amongst all branches of the legal community on all matters relating to the achievement of these objects.

Under Cl 11 of the Academy of Law's Constitution, the Directors may appoint by invitation the Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia to be Patron of the Academy. The Foundation Patron of the Academy was the Hon Chief Justice Murray Gleeson AC, whose term expired on his retirement on 29 August 2008. The Hon Chief Justice Robert French AC also accepted the invitation to be the Patron of the Academy.
